

The Devers Family

The Devers family, of Lake Quivira, set a high bar with their golf accomplishments. In both the amateur and professional ranks, they amassed countless championship titles at the local, state, national and international levels.

The matriarch of the family, Levon Devers, won championship titles in six decades (1953-2000). She was named one of the "Greatest Golfers in Kansas City History" by the Kansas City Star in 2001; won the Kansas Women's Amateur in 1969; won the KWGA Senior Am three times; was City Amateur champion eleven times; played in prestigious events such as the US Women's Amateur, the Broadmoor Invitational, Trans-Miss and Western Amateurs and competed in numerous LPGA events as an amateur.

Ian Devers was the Kansas Junior Champion for his age group in 1983, '84, and '85; qualified for the US Junior in 1987; he was medalist (and semi-finalist) in the Kansas City Match Play in 1988 and made it to the final match of the Kansas Amateur the following year. Ian played at the University of Kansas and the University of Central Florida where his team was ranked in the Top 10 nationally.

As an amateur, Clay Devers amassed an impressive record in state and local circles. He won both the Kansas Junior and the state High School titles in 1985. He racked up three consecutive Kansas Amateurs defeating former champions John Sinovic and Johnny Stevens in '88 and '90 and topping his younger brother, Ian, in 1989. He won the Kansas City Match Play Championship in 1987 and '90, the Kansas City Open in '87 and '88 and played in three US Amateurs from 1988 - '90.

Clay turned pro in late 1990. He won the South Dakota Open twice. Playing in South America and on the Asian Tour, he won the Malaysian Open and Malaysian PGA, the Vietnam Open, Indonesian PGA and served as a Board Member of the Asian Tour for four years.

Before emigrating to the US in 1959, Andy Devers was Assistant Professional at Royal Liverpool. He was sponsored for entry into the US by well-known golf professional Dutch Harrison (aka: "The Arkansas Traveler"). Mr. Devers was Head Professional at Lake Quivira Country Club for 38 years. He was a member of the British PGA, the Midwest Section PGA and a life member of the PGA of America. Mr. Devers was known as a fine teacher of the game as witnessed by three of his prized pupils: Levon, Ian and Clay.

